

JOB SPECIFICATION: CORPORATE ADVISORY ANALYST

Stadia Corporate Advisory, a division of Stadia Capital, is seeking to employ an Analyst who is looking to start their career in corporate finance.

Qualifications:

- Recently qualified CA with Big 4 experience
- Participation in the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) program is advantageous

Requirements and skills:

- Strong academic record and Microsoft Excel ability
- Demonstrable analytical and accounting skills
- Keen interest and familiarity with financial markets, particularly African venture capital, private equity and unlisted credit.
- Excellent writing, presentation, interpersonal and communication skills with a natural ability to connect with people
- Self-starter motivated to do well in the business world and tenacity for working in a dynamic environment
- Willingness to travel internationally

Key responsibilities:

Successful candidate will be involved in transaction analysis and business support, including:

- Detailed financial modelling
- Preparation and analysis of company business plans and investment memorandums
- Drafting of various reports including business analysis and valuations
- Supporting senior members of the team throughout transactions
- Client presentations and engagement

About Stadia Corporate Advisory:

www.stadiacapital.co

Suitable candidates wishing to apply can send their CV, academic transcripts and cover email to careers@stadiacapital.co