

JOB SPECIFICATION: CORPORATE ADVISORY ANALYST

Stadia Corporate Advisory, a division of Stadia Capital, is seeking to employ a Junior Analyst who is looking to start their career in corporate finance.

Qualifications:

- Recent B.BusSci Finance/Economics/IT graduate or equivalent. Participation in the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) program is advantageous.

Requirements and skills:

- Strong academic record and Microsoft Excel ability
- Demonstrable analytical and accounting skills
- Keen interest and familiarity with financial markets
- Excellent writing, presentation, interpersonal and communication skills with a natural ability to connect with people
- Self-starter motivated to do well in the business world. Tenacity.
- Willingness to travel

Key responsibilities:

Successful candidate will be involved in transaction analysis and business support, including:

- Assisting in company valuations and drafting reports
- Supporting senior members of the team throughout transactions
- Assisting in financial modelling
- Preparation and analysis of company business plans and investment memorandums

About Stadia Corporate Advisory:

www.stadiacapital.co

Suitable candidates wishing to apply can send their CV, academic transcripts and cover email to careers@stadiacapital.co